The

'67 FLAME

Co-editors: G. Kushner

L. Uchelovich

Advisor: Mr. Jerome Farkus

A sepia-toned photograph of a garden path. The path is composed of large, smooth, light-colored stones. The path is flanked by low-lying plants with small, white, five-petaled flowers. The overall tone is warm and nostalgic.

Autumn

Fall heralds the beginning of a new school term. As we begin the year we meet the teachers, etc.

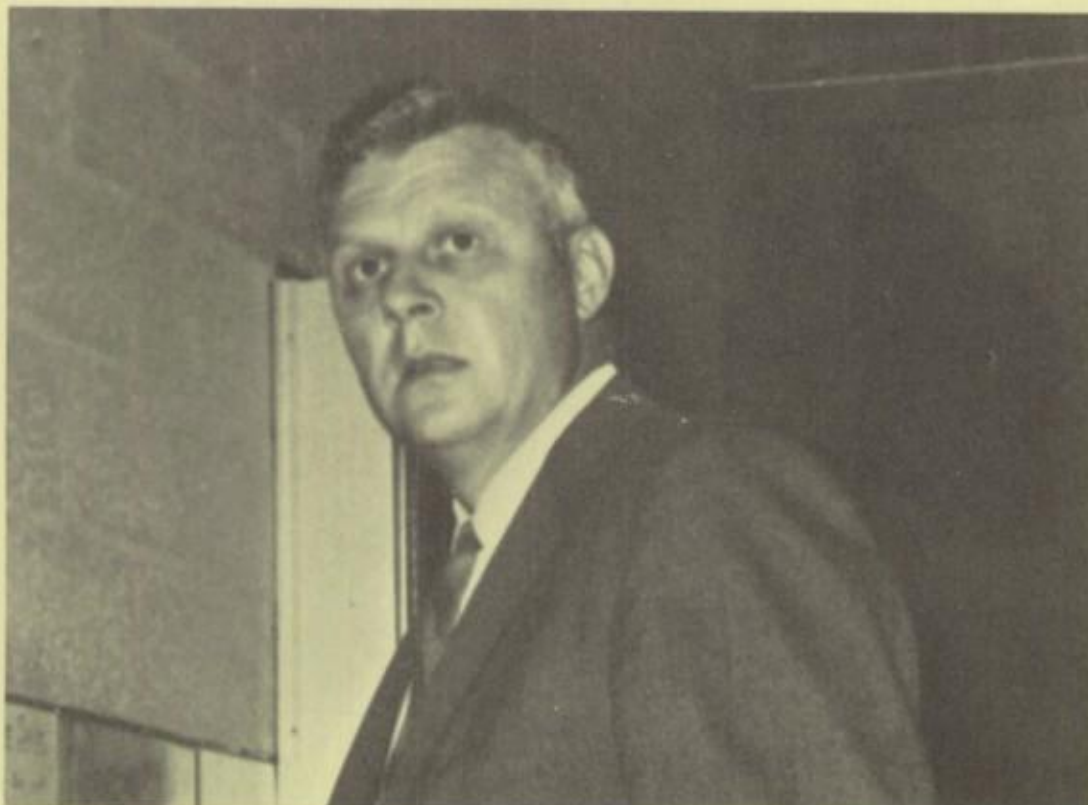

DEDICATION

Mr. Webster

DEDICATION

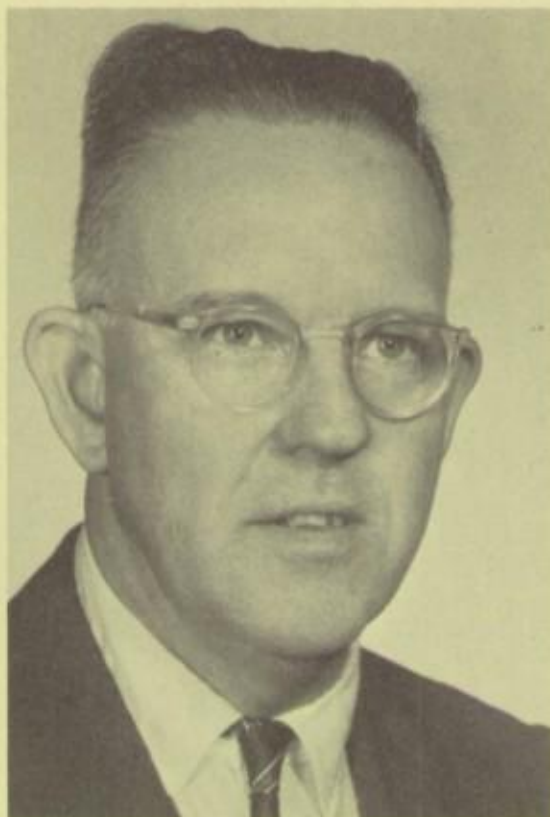

We, the seniors, dedicate this '67 annual FLAME to Mr. Robert Webster. In reminiscing through our last years of high school, we find Mr. Webster uppermost in our thoughts. His dedicated teaching, not only of American History but also his guidance toward being a good citizen, will always be remembered by his students. He has instilled in all of us a feeling of pride for our school. We will always remember his pep talks during crucial times. During five years of teaching at Frazier, his friendly smile, and pleasant personality, has helped to brighten many a day.

PEP RALLY BAND

The Frazier High School Band under the leadership of Mr. Laddie Griglak, played and marched its way through another season of half time activity, at the football games. The band welcomed spectators back to another football season with "Hey Look Me Over" as their opening show. The second show consisted of popular tunes. The third home game was the annual Queen Show. At the last home game the band honored all seniors in the band, cheerleading corps, and the football team. The commentary for this years half time activities was Eugene Baker, our band announcer.

FRAZIER'S BASKETBALL QUEEN

The 1967 Flame proudly presents our lovely '67 Basketball Queen. She is Miss Tamara Turis of Banning. Tammy is enrolled in the Secretarial Course, Member of the National Honor Society and Secretary of Student Council. Congratulations Tammy!

OUR CAPTAIN AND QUEEN

Dave Ramsier, Tamara Turis

QUEEN'S COURT

C. Gearing, B. Casey, M. Forte, D. Buttermore, D. Ramsier, Queen Tammy Turis, J. Rebovich, C. Baluch, J. Kerestesi, S. Gardner.

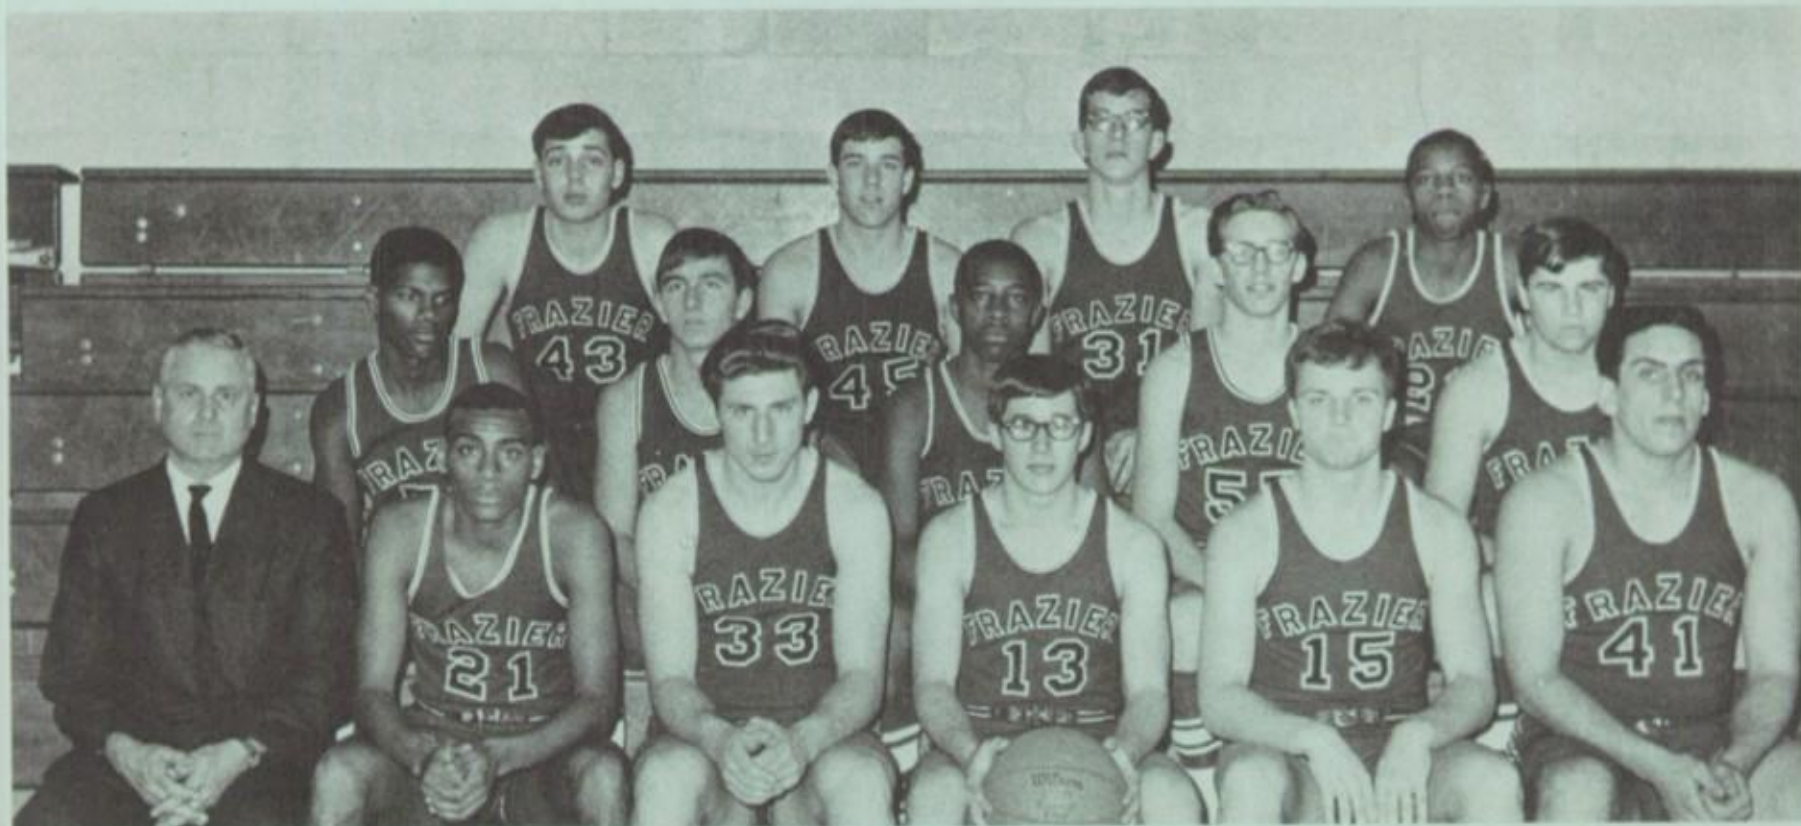

Our 1967 Basket Ball was held on Saturday evening February 4, 1967. It was at this time that our charming queen was crowned by our Captain Dave Ramsier.

QUEEN'S ATTENDANTS

Spring

All the flowers of the spring
Meet to perfume our burying;
These have but their growing prime,
And man doth flourish but his time.
Survey our progress from our birth—
We are set, we grow, we turn to earth.
Courts adieu, and all delights,
All bewitching appetites.
Sweetest breath and clearest eye,
Like perfumes, go out and die;

And consequently this is done
As shadows wait upon the sun.
Vain the ambition of kings
Who seek by trophies and dead things
To leave a living name behind,
And weave but nets to catch the wind.

SPRING

Our journey has come to an end. We now look back on our school days.

Class Prophecy

Being the class secretary of the '67 Graduating Class, and with our class reunion approaching, I think it only appropriate to more or less "fill you in" on the lives of your classmates since graduation. Some of their occupations may shock you, while others will bring a smile. I'm sure you remember Bill Casey. He's now the editor of Playboy, and Linda Henderson is his favorite model. Janice Holet and Nonie Uchelvich reside in Greenwich Village, and both are writing poetry. Speaking of odd residences, Terry Crawford, the second DaVinci, is in Paris studying art. Les Mankin and Tom Krukowsky are getting worldly attention. They are currently tied in a contest for the title of Mr. America. Sue Matsko, now a famous model, recently appeared on the cover of Vogue. Our singing canarie, Peggy Galley, is appearing at the Metropolitan Opera House. Eugene Baker is keeping in step with her. He's making his premier performance on the Andy Williams Show in two weeks. Kay Stolarik is a finalist in the Nationwide Giggling Contest, personally I think she'll take first prize. Marcia Griglak is the first woman to run for president, and Fred Vogel is her campaign manager. In the literary department, Roger Whetzel has edited a new dictionary, "The Wonderful Words of Whetzel", while John Timko just published his first book, "Where did All the Young Girls Go?". George Guesman and Bernie Linner own a casino in Las Vegas. Allan Chalfant is their bouncer. Surprised? Phyllis Ferraro has recently won a "Safe Driving Award" and Dave McKeever the "Indianapolis 500". Carol Baluch now works for CBS, telling whether or not blondes do have more fun. Jim Rowe and Doug Kelly are engineers for the new bridge in Dawson. Hope it's built soon, as the present one is ready to collapse. Being on the subject of construction, Tom Rebottini is the Head of the Highway Dept. Alta Beeson and Barb Evon are enjoying their new invention, "The Smokeless Cigarette"—manufactured primarily for the high student. Ray Evans and John Campbell are generals in the U.S. Army, and Hazel Arison, Roberta McMillin, Janet Ackin-close, Mary Ann Kronick are Wacs in the U.S. Army. Jim Morris writes a gossip column for Inside Scoops. Howie Pivarnik has formed a body building club. Some of his first members were Les Newell and Ray Britt. Sharon Malik is owner of a swinging nightclub where William Austin and John Grimplin can be found every night of the week. Bernice Ramsey now sings with the Supremes, and is on an European tour. Marilyn Hatalowich is secretary of the Dairy men's Cooperative Sales Assn., and Andy Ansell is running for president of the Future Farmers of America. Gloria Kushner, Terrie Valosen, Marilyn Nemoseck, Debbie Palmer are the new stars of CBS F Troop which can be seen nightly. Paul Rimel is the new Jolly Green Giant for Picksweet Frozen Foods. Randy Quinn is also on the screen but in his fourth movie. Richard Burkholder acts as his publicity agent. Adena Barnes is chairman for the Head Start program in Star Junction. Dave Cappalonga works at Ramble Motor Sales in Uniontown, and is head salesman. Guess he buys all the cars. Tom Koslosky is chief inspector for Chiquita Brand bananas. Ellen Shawley teaches driving education at our alma mater, while Dave Murphy is the new truant officer. Margie Backos and Mildred Forte have just bought Skomra's Nursing Home. Shirley Hutchinson and Mary DiVirgilio give clarinet lessons in Pittsburgh. Roger Erdely, now a regular on Studio Wrestling really knows how to hurt a guy. Sharon Little operates her own beauty shop in Charleroi. Sandy Gardner, a psychologist in New York, had Candy Gearing as her first patient. Tim Erdely is starring as Julius Caesar on Broadway. Guess who the lighting technician is? You guessed it—Charles Lynch. While Karen Carson and Mary Koleck are teaching in Uniontown George Kosisky is acquiring credits toward his masters in trigonometry. Ronald Rabatin is president of Fruit and Loom. Fred Katrinak is being sketched for the pattern on the new 1982 pennies. The old pattern was too worn. Nancy Lowery now resembles the Pied Piper with her nine kids trailing along behind her everywhere she goes. Greg Chalfant is the new drummer for "Gary Lewis and the Playboys", an appropriate group. Don't you think? Joann Miller and Nellie Schwartz are now in Metrecal. Jack Keffer has just purchased a new T-Bird from the money he's saved working in the job corps. Darlene Booher is the faithful and devoted wife of John Kerestesi. Joe Puskar, a professor at Harvard, is doing very well. Walter Alberts now works in Newell Chemical Plant, upholding family tradition. Donald Shawley was recently titled Heavyweight Champion of the World? Since Cheryl Rhodes has been business manager for Cope capsules, the sales have risen. Floyd Diggs plays Basketball with the Globe Trotters, and Roger Arison, Don Petrosky, George Kotlar, Howard Sethman and Tom Salisbury are all with the Pittsburgh Steelers. On the political front, Frank Larence and Abe Giocondi are running for governor of Newtown. Joellien Yeskulsy works for Wilson Meat Products in Chicago. Dave McCudden is band director of our alma mater. Personally, I thought Jim Morris had it all wrapped up. Donna Hixon instructs Candy Strippers at Mt. Pleasant Hospital. Bill Stewart is navigator of the Wackiest Ship in the Navy. Dale Buttermore has a thriving new business of his own Moe's Rent'a'Hearse. John Feeney is now caretaker at the Pittsburgh Zoo. Charmaine Angeline patented a new device which contains thread, nail polish, pins, and other necessities, in a small package. Every girl should carry one. Rosie Zasadny is the belly dancer at Paddys Lounge on Saturday nights. Marlene Babich has bought a new Cadillac. Guess she is keeping up with the Joneses' or should I say the Stringhills'? Bill Hannan owns a barber shop in Fayette City, and Frank Cassin has taken over Smockey's Dairy Bar in Newell. John Reho is head bus boy at Twin Coaches. Terry Thompson has helped all you redheads. He's invented a freckle remover. Daniel Sinal is governor of Alaska. Guess he likes cold weather. Ernie Carson is Chief of Police in Perryopolis, and the crime rate is rising. Dave Ramsier now at Parsons College, is doing a thesis on "the Fastest Ways to Copy." He claims you only need five days to learn. Mickey Rosul resides on Rosul Estates in Tampa, Fla. Sharon Evon and Delores Gilmore are currently GO*GO Girls at the Palms. Ginny White operates Perry Floral Shop while Pam Statzula is the Town's seamstress. Nancy Judy is sales representative for No-Doz tablets. She's now visiting various high schools on a promotion tour. Carl Gardner won the Speed Typing contest last week in Los Angeles. Linda Duff is the home economics teachers at our alma mater and Greg Matty is the new math teacher. Dave Pato is editor of the Charleroi Shopper. Dave Brown, a marriage councilor in Pittsburgh, has hired Tammy Turisas his secretary. Steve Grahek is starring on the Rifleman, as Lucas McCane. Wonder why? Elenor Cochran has her dentist office in new Medical Arts Bldg. in Pittsburgh. Jeanie Newell, lives in Canada. Among the other very happy marrieds in our class are Kathy Ludwick, Rachael Axton, and Jo Ann Timcheck. Ray Husar, now president of the Galliton Bank in Uniontown, claims that the books just won't balance. Ron Mellinger is Fire Chief of Banning. Wonder what could burn down??? Bob Rebottini is leader of the Mafia in Whitsett. Joe Gardner and William McGinity both work for U.S. Steel in Monesson. Toni Curcio is getting engaged for Christmas, and Brenda Hartsock in April. Charles Keffer is a Fish and Game Warden. Isabelle Hertherington writes a theatrical column for the New York Times. Dennis Keffer is president of Copenhagen Snuff Co. Carol Keto, now a actress, appeared on the Daniel Boone Show last month. Duane Hiles is mayor of Dawson. Surprising? Bet you didn't even know they had a mayor. Well, now that your information about ole' friends is up to date, I'm sure you will have something to talk about at the reunionnamely each other!

"GOOD OLD DAYS"

DISTINGUISHED SENIORS

The year 1967 brought great glory to our school as Miss Linda Henderson was chosen as the 1966-1967 Coal Queen. Linda is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henderson of Grindstone. Linda is active in a number of extra-curricular activities, including head varsity cheerleader.

Miss Lenora Uchelovich another graduating senior was bestowed with the honor of first runner-up in the Junior Miss Contest which was sponsored by the Uniontown Junior Chamber of Commerce. Lenora is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Uchelovich of Jefferson Estates, Perryopolis, R.D.
